

4. GO TO A NEWSPAPER THAT PUBLISHES IN YOUR COUNTY AND ASK THEM TO PUBLISH A “NOTICE” AT LEAST ONCE A WEEK FOR TWO STRAIGHT WEEKS.

A sample for of “Notice” is included in this packet.

The newspapers charge to put such a notice in the “legal ads” and this charge must be paid. It can be over $100.00. The judge cannot reduce or forgive this charge.

When it is done, the newspaper will provide a “PROOF OF PUBLICATION” which you should file with the Clerk of the Court and show to the judge. The Clerk will not charge you any filing fee for this document.

5. GET A COPY OF THE “PETITION” AND THE “NOTICE OF HEARING” AND MAKE SURE THAT THE LEGAL PARENTS OF THE CHILD HAVE NOTICE OF WHAT YOU ARE DOING.

If you do not know where one or both of the legal parents can be found, be prepared to explain it to the judge. Otherwise, you may not have your petition granted.

6. GO TO THE HEARING AND WHEN YOUR TURN COMES, TELL THE JUDGE WHAT YOU WANT AND WHY. IF NO ONE OBJECTS, THE JUDGE WILL USUALLY GRANT YOUR REQUEST. GIVE THE JUDGE AN “ORDER” TO SIGN.

A sample form of “ORDER FOR CHANGE OF NAME” is included in this packet.

7. GO BACK TO THE COURT CLERK AND FILE THE ORIGINAL OF THE “ORDER” FOR SAFEKEEPING. ASK THE CLERK FOR A CERTIFIED COPY OF THE ORDER.

The fee for a certified copy is $1.50 per page, which you must pay the Clerk. Regular copies are $0.35 per page.

It is a good idea to get more than one copy for your own records and for other agencies like Motor Vehicle Division or Social Security.

8. GO TO THE COUNTY CLERK AND “RECORD” THE ORDER.

The County Clerk is located in the Old Santa Fe County Courthouse, which is 2 blocks south of the Judicial Complex.

The County Clerk will charge a “recording” fee of $7.00 for the first page and $2.00 for every page thereafter. This fee must be paid. The Judge cannot reduce or forgive this fee.

If you cannot afford to pay any court fee, you can ask a judge to allow free or reduced filing but you must prove that you really can’t afford it. A form for that purpose is available from the court.

This “packet” includes directions, a copy of the law and samples of all the forms you need. The packet is provided to you by:

New Mexico Law on Changing a Name

Sec. 40-8-1. Change of name; petition and order. Any resident of this state over the age of fourteen years may, upon petition to the district court of the district in which the petitioner resides and upon filing the notice required with proof of publication, if no sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, have his name changed or established by order of the court. The parent or guardian of any resident of this state under the age of fourteen years may, upon petition to the district court of the district in which the petitioner resides and upon filing the notice required with proof of publication, if no sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, have the name of his child or ward changed or established by order of the court. When residents under the age of fourteen years petition the district court for a name change, the required notice shall include notice to both legal parents. The order shall be entered at length upon the record of the court, and a copy of the order, duly certified, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the person resides. The county clerk shall record the same in a record book to be kept by him for that purpose.

Sec. 40-8-2. Notice of application; contents; publication. Before making application to the court for changing or establishing a name as above provided, the applicant must cause a notice thereof, stating therein the nature of the application, the time and place, when and where the same will be made, to be published in the county where such application is to be made, and where said applicant resides, said notice to be published at least once each week for two consecutive weeks, in some newspaper printed in said county, and if there be no newspaper published in the county where said applicant resides, then said notice shall be published in a newspaper printed in a county nearest to the residence of said person, and having a circulation in the county where such person resides.

Sec. 40-8-3. Hearing; final order. That the hearing and determination of all proceedings instituted under the provisions of this chapter, and the final order of the court therein, shall be had and made at some regular term of the district court sitting within and for the county wherein said petitioner resides.
