ORDER FOR MEDIATION

It has been made to appear to the Court that a parenting plan or agreement has not been filed regarding issues concerning custody and/or visitation affecting the parties' children or, that a parenting plan has been filed and there is a dispute regarding custody and/or visitation issues, there is no-good reason appearing to the Court that the parties should not be encouraged to so mediate a parenting plan.

It is, therefore, approved and ordered by the Court that:

1. This matter regarding custody and visitation shall be referred to the Family Court Services, for the purpose of mediation, and for Priority Consultation and/or Advisory Consultation if mediation has been unsuccessfully attempted, by order of the Court.
2. The Clerk's Office shall be paid by the parties prior to each session in accordance with the sliding scale fee determined by the Family Court Services.
3. The Parties shall attend and Information Session on Children and Separation and mediation session with the Family Court Services as scheduled through that office. An Information Session on Children and Separation has been scheduled for _____ from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm at the Santa Fe County judicial Complex, corner of Grant and Catron, Santa Fe, New Mexico, Large Courtroom (second floor). Children shall not attend this session.
4. The parties shall furnish the Family Court Services with the completed Mediation Services Information Sheet at the General Information Session.
5. The mediator shall encourage and assist the parties to resolve the contested child custody and visitation matters in a way that is mutually satisfactory to the parties and beneficial to the best interests of the child or children.
6. Medication proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential. All communications, verbal or written, from the parties to the mediator made pursuant to the Order shall be inadmissible in any Court hearing.
7. No report of the content of mediation shall be made to the Court, priority consultant, advisory consultant or counsel for either party. If the mediation process is successful, the agreement shall be reduced to the writing on a form to be signed by the parties.

8. The parties shall make themselves available for consultation with the mediator, priority consultant, and shall participate and cooperate fully with the program. They shall also make their children available if so requested.

9. If a medication agreement cannot be reached, the case will proceed for a Priority Consultation and/or an Advisory Consultation. Psychological evaluations and/or alcohol/drug assessments may be included as requested by the advisory consultant or the Court.

10. The priority consultant shall make recommendations to the court.

11. The report of the Advisory Consultation shall be given to counsel for each party. In the event of a hearing, the report shall be made available to the court.

12. Parties shall not disclose or show the contents of the report to any other persons without the permission of both parties or permission of the court. Nothing in this provision shall prevent the disclosure of the report to the parties' own experts, consultants, counselors or therapists where applicable.

PARENTING PLAN
(One Child Only)

1. Legal Custody

We agree to share joint legal custody of our child; this is, neither of us will make a major change affecting our child in the areas of religion, residence, non-emergency medical care, education or major recreational activities without consulting with the other parent. Before such a decision is made, we will discuss the matter and both of us must agree. If we cannot agree, our disagreement will be resolved by the methods we have chosen and set out in this parenting plan.

2. Time-Sharing

We will share time with the child as follows:

Weekdays: _____

Weekends: _____

Weekends begin at _____ o'clock (Friday) (Saturday) [Choose 1] and end at _____ o'clock (Sunday) (Monday) [Choose 1], unless Monday is a legal holiday, in which case the weekends ends at _____ o'clock (Monday) (Tuesday) [Choose 1].

(Optional): We have attached a calendar for the year _____ to this plan, and have marked in red the days the child will spend with the mother and in blue the days the child will spend with father. Days for this calendar begin at _____ o'clock and end at _____ o'clock.

Vacations: Each parent will have uninterrupted time with the child for _____ weeks each summer if that parent gives the other at least _____ days notice.

(Option for young children): Until the youngest child reaches age _____, uninterrupted vacation time with parent is limited to _____ weeks. Between the ages of _____ and _____, that time will be _____ weeks. Between the ages of _____ and _____, that time will be _____ weeks. After reaching age _____, vacation time will be _____ weeks.

Holidays: Regardless of the day of the week, the child will spend:

- (a) Mother's Day and mother's birthday with mother;
- (b) Father's Day and father's birthday with father;
- (c) Child's birthdays with _____ in even-numbered years and with _____ in odd-numbered years.

The Child will spend time on holidays as follows:

	Even-numbered years	Odd-numbered years
Easter	_____	_____
Thanksgiving	_____	_____
Christmas	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Telephone: We agree that the child has a right to place phone calls to and receive phone calls from the absent parent.

Changes: Each of us is free to ask for exceptions to this schedule, but we understand that the other parent can say "no", and we will not argue about it.

Transportation: We will divide the responsibility for getting the child to and from each other's house, day care, school, etc., as follows:

3. Trial Period or Permanent Plan: (Check one)

[] We have not tried this time-sharing schedule before, so we agree that we will review the time-sharing plan in _____ days and at that time we will make any changes we agree on. If we cannot agree to changes, we will resolve our dispute using the method set forth in paragraph 6 below.

We have already tried this time-sharing schedule, so we intend it to be permanent. We recognize, however, that as our child grows and our lives change, it may be necessary to change the schedule from time to time. We agree that this is a major change that we have to discuss and agree on, and if necessary follow the dispute resolution procedures set out in paragraph 6 below.

4. The Status Quo—What we have now:

- (a) Religion _____
- (b) Doctor _____
- (c) Dentist _____
- (d) Other Medical _____
- (e) School _____
- (f) Recreation _____

We agree that neither of us will remove, cause to be removed, or permit removal the child from the State of New Mexico, except for temporary visits which do not interfere with the time-sharing schedule, without the written consent of the other parent or resolution of the dispute by the method set forth in paragraph 6 below.

5. Emergencies

In case of a medical emergency, if time allows, the parent with that period of responsibility will contact the other parent concerning treatment of the child. If the absent parent cannot be reached, any decision for emergency medical treatment will be made in the best interest of the child by the available parent.

6. Dispute Resolution

We will discuss all major changes in the child's life in order to try to reach agreement. If we cannot agree, after discussion, we will:

- Participate in family counseling to try to reach agreement.
- Participate in conciliation or mediation to try to reach agreement.
- Submit the matter to _____ for binding arbitration.
- Allocate ultimate responsibility to _____ for decisions.
- Submit the matter to the District Court, which may refer the matter to a special master, or who may terminate joint custody, among other resolutions.

[NOTE: If more than one method of dispute resolution is desired, number the choices in order (#1 for the first method to be used, #2 for the second method, etc.)].

7. General Matters

In order to foster a continuing relationship between our child and both of the parents, we both agree:

- (a) to be actively involved in the major decisions and legal responsibilities of our child.

- (b) to communicate and be flexible about the needs of our child, especially as those needs change due to growth and development.
- (c) To be supportive of and positive about the child's relationship with the other parent. Each of us will give loving permission to the child to enjoy the relationship with the other parent and neither of us will interfere with the parent-child relationship of the other.
- (d) Neither of us will align the child against the other parent or the other parent's family.
- (e) We agree that each of us is responsible to keep the other parent informed of the child's school functions, parent-teacher conference and recreational activities.
